

SYRACUSE REGIONAL MUSEUM

Internship Application

The Syracuse Regional Museum (SRM) is dedicated to inspiring self-reflection and dialogue in its community and visitors through exhibitions, programs, and collections in the arts, histories, and humanities. The museum officially opened in 2000 and continues to act as a steward of historical keeping for the City of Syracuse. It is currently the museum's goal to become a staple source of history for visitors and residents of Syracuse. With the large military presence in the local area, SRM's local fashion collection and military exhibit reflect the cultural threads that bind the city of Syracuse. While the institution continues to grow in the heart of Syracuse, more resources and generosity are needed to help keep the museum afloat.

Applicants interested in interning with the museum must be a graduating high school senior or college student enrolled at a four-year university, two-year community college, or tech school studying a field related to museum work (History, Anthropology, Education, etc.). Selectees will be expected to contribute at least 4 hours a week during the semester of their choice. Specific schedules will be determined and approved by museums staff in collaboration with selectees. All work will be done under the direct supervision and guidance of museum staff. College credit may also be available but is subject to approval by the selectee's educational institution.

Opportunities include work in museum curation, museum education, and collections management. This internship will be paid and funding will be determined at the interview.

To apply, fill out and submit the attached application form along with a cover letter and resume to the Syracuse Regional Museum (1891 West 1700 South, Syracuse, Utah 84041).
